WE ARE ONE

*Look, gimme a hand, what does it matter way I come from?
They tell me, my people catch Jacks off the Tobago coast,
With these two feet, I stood on Lower Bay Street,
And saw fishermen drag in nets breaking with Jacks
In St. Vincent,*

*What you mean, way I come from?
I remember my trips to the Trinidad markets,
With honey-tongued vendors luring me with a
"Doo doo darling!"*

*Then, one day, in a market in Guadeloupe
From lips I thought were french
Came the sweet, english-island accent,
"Come darling!"*

*And I knew all over again,
That we are one.*

*What you mean way I come from?
Geologists tell us that in times past,
All these islands constituted one great land mass.
So, I have an accent?*

You do too.

*You sound strange to me, and I to you,
But we are one.*

*Jamaicans like ackee and saltfish,
Barbadians like the flying fish,
Trinidadians like the cascadoo,
And no doubt, if they try the ackee and flying fish
They'd like it too.
We Are One!*

Chancellor's O m m e n t a r y 1983

It would seem that the sum total of all life's aspirations should be toward a better world in which to live. We believe that our success in developing worthwhile lives rests on our abilities to discover new and better means toward our ultimate goals -- goals that are based on four fundamental phases of life's activities, namely, Education, Culture, Economics, and Social Advancements.

You must explore all avenues as you seek new and better ways and means to throw off the yokes of poverty, disease, and ill will. You must be courageous and daring. You must perfect the old and seek out the new.

With these thoughts, we dedicate the future to the University of Maryland Eastern Shore graduating class of 1983.

HOMECOMING 1983

The Deltas step with visiting sisters.

Miss UMES expresses her gratitude

Homecoming this year was very exciting, it carried the theme: "The Sky is the Limit."

Throughout the week there were many activities. There were Forums and Speakers, sponsored by the Fraternities and Sororities; there was a Talent Show, Maroon & Gray Day, Rap Session, Greek Show, Coronation of Miss UMES, the Coronation Ball, M.E.A.C. Wrestling and Track Championships, Basketball games and a concert by "Pieces of a Dream".

Homecoming "83" was truly a fulfilling week in which we can say, "The Sky is the limit".

DEDICATION

We are proud to dedicate the 1983 yearbook to a great lady, Mrs. Dorothy Waters. Her many outstanding attributes are embodied in her name as described below:

D — Determined, dedicated; always sacrificing for the benefit of others

O — Optimistic, open-minded; always hoping for a better day

R — Resourceful, resilient; always lending support to others

O — Omniscient, observant; always thinking before acting

T — Thoughtful, tactful; always considering others, first

H — Helpful, humble; always going the extra mile for others

Y — Youthful, yearning; always tireless in the quest for knowledge

W — Wise, winsome; always exhibiting motherly ways

A — Amiable, affable; always being a joy to have around

T — Tenacious, timeless; always seeing a task to completion

E — Energetic, enthusiastic; always going beyond her duties

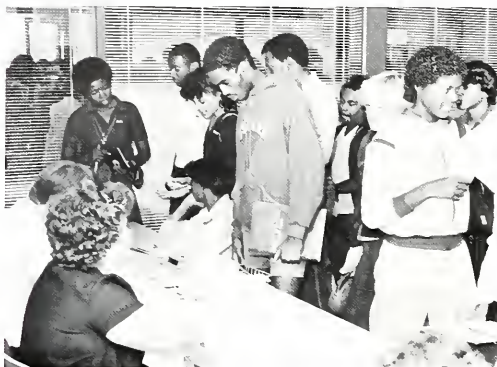

R — Rational, reasonable; always respecting another viewpoint

S — Soulful, sensitive; always feeling for the other person

As Director of the Career Placement and Planning Office, Mrs. Waters has helped to launch the careers of many successful UMES students. Through her support in many other activities (yearbook, teaching, newspaper, advisor, etc.), many other students have been touched. For this, we will be eternally grateful to have passed her way.

DON'T QUIT

*When Things Go Wrong As They Sometimes Will
When The Road You Are Trudging Seems All Uphill
When The Funds Are Low And The Debts Are High
When You Want To Smile But Have To Sigh
When Care Is Pressing You Down A Bit
Rest If You Must But Don't You Quit*

*Life Is Queer With Its Twists And Turns
As Everyone Of Us Sometimes Learns
And Many A Fellow Turns About
When He Might Have Won Had He Stuck It Out
And He Learned Too Late When The Night Came Down
How Close He Was To The Golden Crown*

*Often Our Goal Is Nearer Than It Seems
To A Faint And Faultering Man
Often Our Struggler Has Given Up
When He Might Have Captured The Victor's Cup
Don't Give Up Though The Pace Seems Slow
You May Succeed With Another Blow*

*Success Is Failure Turned Inside Out
The Silver Tint Of The Clouds Of Doubt
You Never Can Tell How Close You Are
You May Be Near When It Seems Afar
So Stick To The Fight When You Are Hardest Hit
It's When Things Seem "Worst" That You Must Not Quit!*

RLEK ORGANIZATIONS, INC.

ALPHA ALPHA KAPPA

Alpha Kappa Alpha is the first Greek-letter sorority among Negro college women. Alpha Kappa Alpha was founded at Howard University in Washington, D.C. on January 15, 1908. Our founders organized themselves with the purpose in mind "to cultivate and encourage high scholastic and ethical standards, improve the social status of the race, promote unity and friendship among college women, and keep alive within the alumnae an interest in college life and progressive movements emanating therefrom." Alpha Kappa Alpha was incorporated under the laws of the District of Columbia and the original chapter became the Alpha chapter in 1913. Alpha Kappa Alpha then began to expand to other college campuses.

In keeping with our intended purpose, Alpha Kappa Alpha today participates in a number of civic, social, and educational services, among these are scholarship funds and a national health program. Alpha Kappa Alpha is a member of the American Council on Human Rights.

ALPHA PHI ALPHA

From the Men of Purpose

Good will is the monarch of this house. Men, unacquainted, enter, shake hands, exchange greetings and depart friends. Cordiality exists among all who abide within.

Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. which is the oldest Black Greek-letter Fraternity was founded December 4, 1906, at Cornell University in Ithaca, N.Y. by Nathaniel A. Murray, Henry A. Callis, Charles H. Chapman, Eugene K. Jones, George B. Kelly, Robert H. Ogle, and Vertner W. Tandy (known to the fraternity as the seven jewels).

These seven jewels stuck together through the primaries of organizing this fraternity. Their purpose was to show the world that they possessed the necessary tools of manly brotherhood to better themselves and contribute in whatever ways they could in making society better, socially, economically, and culturally.

We, the Delta Nu Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha, believe strongly in the ideals and purpose of our fraternity. We will continue to rise and multiply, and remain the most unique, and distinguished magnetic fraternal force in the world

KAPPA ALPHA PSI

A New Dimension In Achievement

Founded on January 5, 1911 as a Black Greek College Fraternity at Indiana University, Kappa Alpha Psi has since then indoctrinated approximately 77,000 members into its noble clan.

The Gamma Xi Chapter, here at UMES, has continued the Fraternity's initial objective as a community serving organization. This "New Era" of brothers has initiated programs and activities such as, the Annual Blood Drive (in cooperation with the Salisbury Blood Bank). This activity has donated more blood to our nearby community, than any other Blood Drive on the Delmarva Peninsula. Other activities include The First Annual Kappa Roundball Classic and The First Annual Kappa Kabaret. These, and other activities which the brothers have implemented, will continue the growth of the Chapter and the Grand Fraternity.

Kappa Alpha Psi is a new dimension in achievement and another reason to be proud of the heritage here at the University of Maryland Eastern Shore.

S I G M A DELTA T H E T A

Unity Theme

Delta's unity is reflected in the symbolism of the National Flower of the sorority, the Violet.

Deltas are like violets who can not show their fullest beauty while standing alone, but when united as one with the power of sisterhood focused toward the same goals they will radiate a magnificent force that will conquer any task.

Although at first glance Deltas seem to look alike, on closer inspection, one notes the many subtle, charming, and individual characteristics that make each one distinctly different from her sister. This difference strengthens the unity within the sisterhood because Deltas accept each other as a vital part of the development of an unbreakable bond.

Hartford County Alumnae*

ZETA PHI BETA

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. was founded at Howard University in Washington, D.C. on January 16, 1920 by Arizona Stemmons, Myrtle Faithful, Pearl A. Neal, Fannie Watts, and Viola Goings. They were encouraged to establish the sorority by C.R. Taylor and A.L. Langston Taylor, members of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. To this date, Zeta Phi Beta and Phi Beta Sigma have worked together as official Greek-lettered sister and brother organizations.

The objectives, which are Sisterly Love, Womanhood, Service and Scholarship, have brought together women from all parts of the world who have similar tastes, aspirations, potentialities, and desires. The members of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. have become a vital part of the community and the world.

PHI BETA SIGMA

On January 9, 1914 three students at Howard University came together to form the nucleus of what has now become one of the most prestigious and influential Greek-letter college societies.

Sigma's bond of Brotherhood, Scholarship and Service extends beyond the United States and is now international in scope, which accounts for its great diversity of character.

Phi Beta Sigma's motto: "Culture for Service and Service for Humanity" exemplifies the dedication of its members to serve Humanity and enhance its culture through the promotion of Education, Bigger and Better Black Business and Social Action.

The Alpha Mu Chapter was established in 1935 and enjoys the distinction of being the first Greek-letter Fraternity chartered at U.M.E.S.

OMEGA

PHI

Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. was founded November 17, 1911 at Howard University thus establishing itself as the first Black Fraternity to be instituted on a Black campus. By adhering to the four cardinal principles: Manhood, Scholarship, Perseverance, and Uplift, it continues to serve mankind and all causes consistent with its beliefs.

*Founders: Dr. Ernest E. Just

Soul Explosion, The Band with Emotion and Devotion

The Soul Explosion band which is presently under the direction of Rev. K.A. Martin Sr. has demonstrated pride, dedication, and service to the University of Maryland, Eastern Shore.

The main concern of the Soul Explosion band is to spread a message of love, joy, peace, and happiness through music. Their achievements and accomplishments are made possible through hard work and a family effort.

Soul Explosion is more than just a band, it's a proud and close-knit family, a family which uses pride, dignity, honor, and self-respect as sources of inspiration.

Rev. Martin and his wife have, in addition to conducting a band, taught their members the key to another successful year; love, understanding, determination, and most of all devotion.

With his strong determination and academic accomplishments within the community as well as the campus, GPG has brought forth a Social Fellowship that strives on unity and togetherness of our black heritage.

Unity is the Key

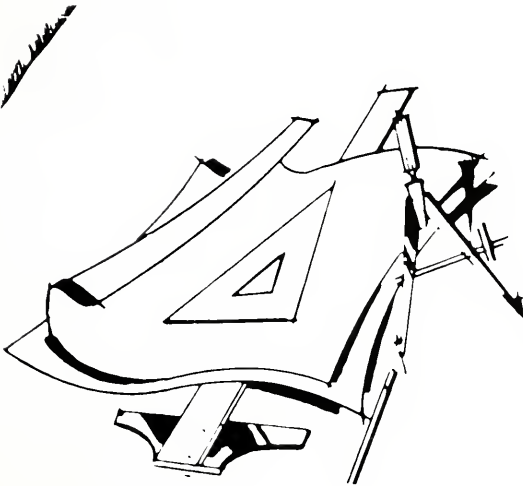

We, as college men, being aware of the increasing complexity of men's problems, especially those of Black men, and realizing the necessity of forming an organization for the purpose of studying and solving such problems, do therefore organize this fellowship in order to cultivate and encourage high scholastic and ethical standards, improve the social stature of the race, promote unity and fellowship among college men and keep alive within the graduate an interest in college life and progressive movement emanating therefrom.

A Message From The Editor

Dear Members of the Hawk Family,

It has been a pleasure working as Editor-in-Chief of the 1982-83 Yearbook. I must admit that I am very pleased with this edition of the Hawk Yearbook. At the present time, I have no regrets other than not having an undergraduate section. The response of underclassmen for picture sessions was so meager, we decided to exclude them. I apologize to those who were considerate enough to have their pictures taken. Hopefully, next year your peers will contribute to the success of yet another Yearbook.

I'd like to thank the members of the Publications Review Board for giving me the opportunity to head the staff.

My appreciations go out to Ms. Linda Wolford for having the patience to listen to my many complaints (although I lost the bet, "we met our deadlines"); to Ms. Alrethia M. Matthews for putting up with my many moods, for being a friend and trusting me. (I can't help being spoiled, but I made you laugh, luv ya); to Dr. Diane Showell for taking time out during those last minutes to write the dedication thanks for responding to my distress call; to Mr. Alan Fritch, Public Relations Officer for keeping us informed of University activities and visitors. I'd like to especially thank Mrs. Dorothy Waters our advisor, for endorsing me as the editor-in-chief, and for giving me the responsibility of producing the book. I know I gave you ----, but I know you believed and had faith in me. Thanks for treating me to lunch and dinner those days when I was hungry. Being a vegetarian isn't bad. Try it, you'll like it. I love you and will never forget you.

I'd like to thank all my friends who helped me meet that last deadline, without you, I would have been a total wreck: Cassandra, Debbie, Donna, Johnny, Debbie, Beverly, Larry, Darlene. That's what friends are for... caring.

Mike and Karen, I'll never forget either of you. For without you there would be no me. I thank you again. "Steph", I don't know what to say, you were always there when I needed a shoulder to cry on. Thank you for taking the slack for the rest of the staff when no one else was there to hear it. Thanks for understanding and never giving up on me. I told you this wasn't an easy job, now do you believe me?

I'd like to apologize to Sharon for our misunderstanding. I hope we can still be friends.

To Mr. Wiles, our school photographer, many, many thanks. Courtesy is contagious. To the rest of our staff, I thank you with all of my heart for your hard work, cooperation, dedication and faith. You never gave up hope, not even under pressure during the last seconds of the game. Your thoughts and ideas were greatly appreciated and I will never forget them or you.

Challenge after challenge, experience after experience, and finally a touch of class. A step above the rest. In my eyes this is what every yearbook staff strives for, aside from quality, quantity and perfection. I am happy to have had the opportunity to serve this growing University as a member of the Hawk yearbook staff.

The experience gave me an opportunity to spread a feeling of unity among my peers. This has enhanced the concept of our theme "Unity holds the key."

*Truly yours,
Michael R. Walker*

Stephanie Nix

Stephanie Nix is a native of New York City who is majoring in Business Administration. She is a junior here at the University and has worked with the staff for two consecutive years, the first as a volunteer.

She enjoys dancing, children, and meeting new people. Her objective in life is to become a successful business woman.

"I feel that more people should become involved in their school publications. I used to think the complaints of the staff were unreal, but they are not." I realize now how much hard work and dedication it takes to produce a successful yearbook. I am very proud to have been a part of this venture.

Sharon Johnson

Hello,

As a senior majoring in business Adm., and presently residing in Silver Springs, Md., I have found the past three years working with the Hawk staff a very rewarding and memorable experience. This publication has helped me devote the necessary time and effort carefully, the time and effort that was needed to construct a successful yearbook for you, the students at the University.

Due to the lack of staffing in previous years, I dedicated my services to be sure that "we" the student body had a yearbook.

I have enjoyed every moment with the staff and will continue to be of service to them when needed.

Please, any interested students, join us. Help to achieve the goals that I, myself, have achieved while working with the 1983-84 yearbook staff.

We need your support!!

Leslie Halsey

My name is Leslie Halsey. I am a new member of the Hawks Yearbook staff. I am a junior majoring in Business Administration and a resident of Greenbelt, MD. I really enjoyed working with the staff, to complete yet another successful book.

I joined the team in hope that my services would be of some assistance, to better the quality of this yearbook. I know that my input makes a lot of difference in this publication's output.

— a life that does not afford the kind of freedom which you have enjoyed as a typical college student. At the same time, and perhaps most important, the life you are now beginning is one of unlimited challenge and opportunity.

The University of Maryland Eastern Shore has given you foundation. Your goals, aspirations, and motivations will dictate the additional preparation you will need, as well as the direction you will go from here. And whether you choose to enter the job market at this juncture or go on to graduate and professional school, resolve to commit your total self to the task. Be tenacious, competitive, and unyielding. Go forth with the ambition of a Kennedy or a Rockefeller; the adventure of the legendary Viking; and the wisdom of a Socrates. In doing so, you will contribute significantly to the legacy of this Institution and earn for it the accolades it rightfully deserves.

Congratulations on becoming alumni from this Institution — and the best of luck in your future endeavors."

The University of Maryland Eastern Shore's 96th Commencement Program — 1983 — Chancellor Hytche speaks:

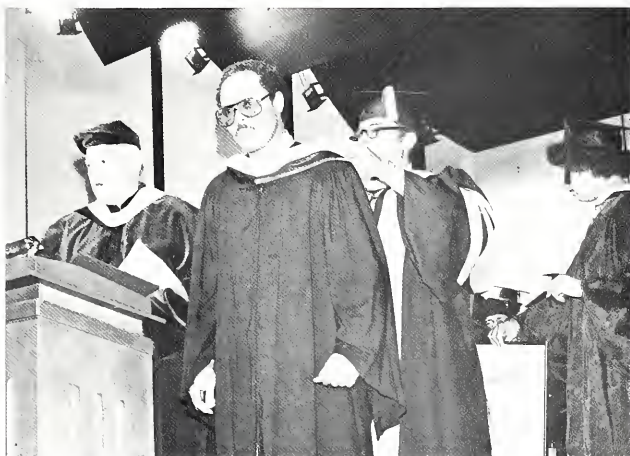

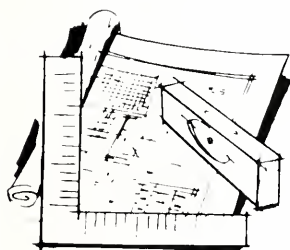

"This is perhaps my last opportunity to address you — the class of 1983 — as a group, and I would like to leave you with these final thoughts.

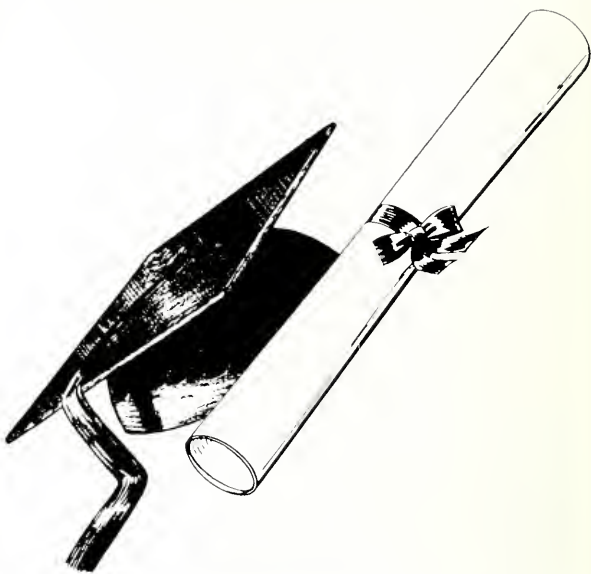

In anticipation, four years seem like a lifetime. The academic rigor, problems of finance, and personal sacrifices all seem to make the college experience one long, extended struggle. Oftentimes you have, no doubt, questioned the worth and value of this experience — particularly given the employment situation growing out of the economic upheaval of the last decade. But in the "face" of these would-be adversities, you persevered, buttressed by the encouragement and support of your teachers, friends, parents, and guardians.

This achievement is not, however, an end within itself, rather, it is, as the Commencement Exercise symbolizes, the beginning. It is the beginning of a life of unlimited responsibility and unending labor

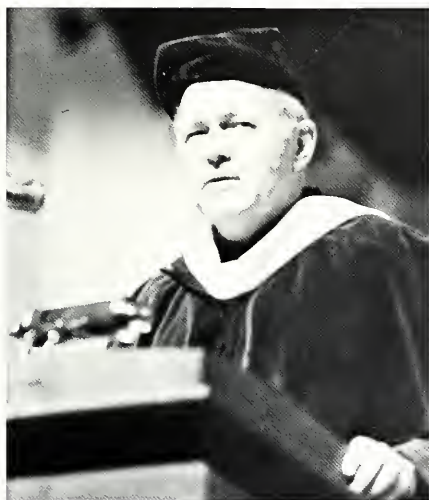

A solo presentation by Mrs. Tania Galvin-Massey, Soprano, featuring Ms. Alma Gregg, Associate Professor of Music, on piano and Dr. Douglas I. Smith, Lecturer of Music on flute.

The Honorable Joseph D. Tydings, chairman of the University of Maryland Board of Regents and University of Maryland President, John S. Toll, both spoke at the Ceremony.

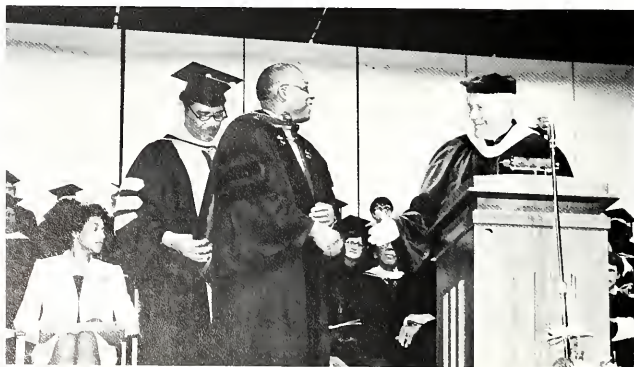

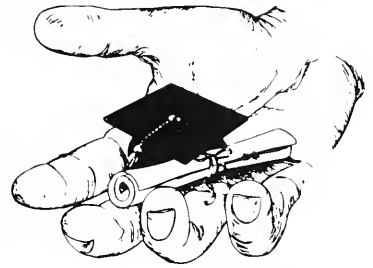

*If you can imagine it,
you can achieve it,
If you can dream it,
you can become it.
For, we imagined,
We dreamed;
We achieved; and
We are now college graduates.*

Wanda Carter — Senior Class Commentary

Delivering this year's address was James A. Joseph, president and chief executive officer of the Council of Foundations in Washington, DC. Elected by a unanimous decision of the Council's Board of Directors in January, 1982, Joseph assumed direction of the 969-member organization on March 1 of this year.

Formerly vice president and assistant to the chairman of Cummins Engine Company, Joseph served as Under Secretary of the Interior in the Carter Administration from 1977 to 1981. An author and former educator, he has taught at Yale and has served as president of the Cummins Engine Foundation. From 1970 to 1972, Joseph served as chief executive officer of three independent foundations: Irwin-Sweeney-Miller; Cummins Engine; and Irwin Union, where he developed programs and grants in education, religion, community development, and the arts.

The UMES Alumni Association Award, given annually to a graduating senior, was presented by Ms. Valerie Watts, a 1968 alumna and Senior Council for Delmarva Power and Light Company in Delaware. Ms. Greta Elliott is the recipient of this most honored award.
